GIRL SWIMMERS FIGHT OUT FINE 5 MILE RACE

the annual five mile swimming race for gomen from Rockaway to Brighton by Brighton Beach baths. Miss Golding ed all the way. Miss Dora Hyatt of Bath Beach was only thirty yards behind a finish that drew 5,000 spectators to the water's edge. Mrs. Lillian Howard of Brooklynt second in last year's race, was chird this time 150 yards back of Miss Hypti. The winner's time was 1 hour 6 minutes 30 seconds.

The weather conditions were fairly good The weather conditions were lairly good for the race, although a strong breeze made the sea a trifle choppy. No glaring am dazzled the swimmers eyes and the start at 3:58 P. M. save them the advantage of a strong tide, which carried them along from Point Breeze, near Rockto the dredge outside the Brighton

The surprise of the race was furnished The surprise of the race was furnished by Miss Hyatt. With little previous experience at such a long route this sixteen year-old merhald outclassed most of the field and pushed Miss Goldling all the way, giving her one of the bardest contests of her career. But for a cramp in her leg a mile away from the finish Miss Hyatt might have made the contest end in an even more thrilling fashion, as she was coming strong at the time.
The race was good all the way. When the ten centestants who lined up had dived of Miss Golding rose to the surface in the lead and went out as pilot for the others, cleaving the water smoothly with a trudgeon stroke. She was closely pursued by Miss Hyatt and Mrs. Howard, both using a half trudgeon, but before half a mile had been covered Miss Golding had gained twenty yards on Miss Hyatt, with Mrs. Howard a close third. Mrs. Martha Lachman and the others were well up at first, but at three-quarters of a mile they began to fall back and were soon left far to the rear. Miss Reatrice Rehm, who was third two years ago, was taken out of the veter with a severe cramp at one mile. others, cleaving the water smoothly with evere cramp at one mile.

The struggle among the three leaders was pretty, with Miss Hyatt and Mrs. Howard straining every neive to overtake Miss Golding. Miss Hyatt followed steadily in the wake of the pacemaker and never let her get far ahead. Mrs. Howard presently began to steer out further from shore until she was 100 yards to the left of the other two. Toward the close of the second mile she started pulling up on them and at the two miles she had passed Miss Hyatt by a few yards and was only twenty yards behind Miss Golding.

But this was her last dangerous bid for But this was her last dangerous bid for first honors. She soon dropped back and at the third mile was 160 yards behind Miss Hyatt and swimming closer inshore. Miss Hyatt was going with an ease and hower that belied her slight build, and in the beginning of the third mile she made a strong effort, cutting down Miss Golding's lead to ten yards.

Miss Golding continued to send in telling trudgeon strokes in an unhurried fashion, but with more force than before, and she quickly restored the interval of trenty and she was high trenty and trenty val of twenty yards between Miss Hyatt and herself. Many boats dotted the water as the race speeded up to an exciting close, and a merel male swimmer who had ventured to accompany these mermids, was left severely alone at about this point.
